ADMINISTRATION

AND

CLASSROOM

Edith D. Payne, Director of the School of Nursing, always finds time to take a personal interest in our progress.

Left to right: M. Jeanne Christian, Ruth Johnsen, Barbara Schmidt: Assistant Directors — all are essential to a smooth-running school.

Ruth Ferguson — Professional Orientation — Helps us understand the importance of nursing as a profession.

Peggy Lusk — counselor — listens in confidence to our personal problems.

Communication Department: F. Lockerby and R. Crist teach us to communicate effectively.

Social Science Department: Left to right — R. Susser, G. Nass, H. Warren, L. Pinto and O. Schlesinger help us understand ourselves and our patients more fully. Not pictured: C. Munro, J. Skipper.

Natural Science Department: P. Brown, E. Applegate, K. Montgomery, M. Schmittler and M. Steward teach us the fundamentals of the human organism — its needs and functions. Not pictured: G. Sackheim.

Fundamentals of Nursing: Left to right — I. Harris, A. Fossieck, J. Edson, M. Gibbs, C. Baitland, M. Chin, C. DeYoung,

B. Holmsten, C. Zandrews and J. Schmitz guide the faltering steps of new freshmen.

Nursing Instructors: Left to right — J. Osterling, L. Russell, C. Marks, B. Snyder, P. Thompson and M. Lescher.

Nurse Internship: Left to right — M. Stephenson, B. Peters, S. Yeomans and D. Doubek provide guidance during the important last year.

Medical-Surgical Nursing: Left to right — M. Friemanis, K. Loomis, R. Blum, M. McNally, C. Samolyk, M. Kase, N.

Wood and M. Schroder. Not pictured: B. Allen. All help widen the experience and knowledge of the juniors.

Library: R. Weres, P. Owens, E. Tinkham and J. Mackey keep our well-stocked library in top shape, realizing its importance to all the students.

MEDICAL-SURGICAL

"How much the heart may bear . . . and yet not break." Allen

NURSING

The satisfaction of a job well-done.

R. Boswell, Instructor.

"What is your name?"

Push fluids with a smile!

Members of the health team review the patient's progress before extending their morning greeting.

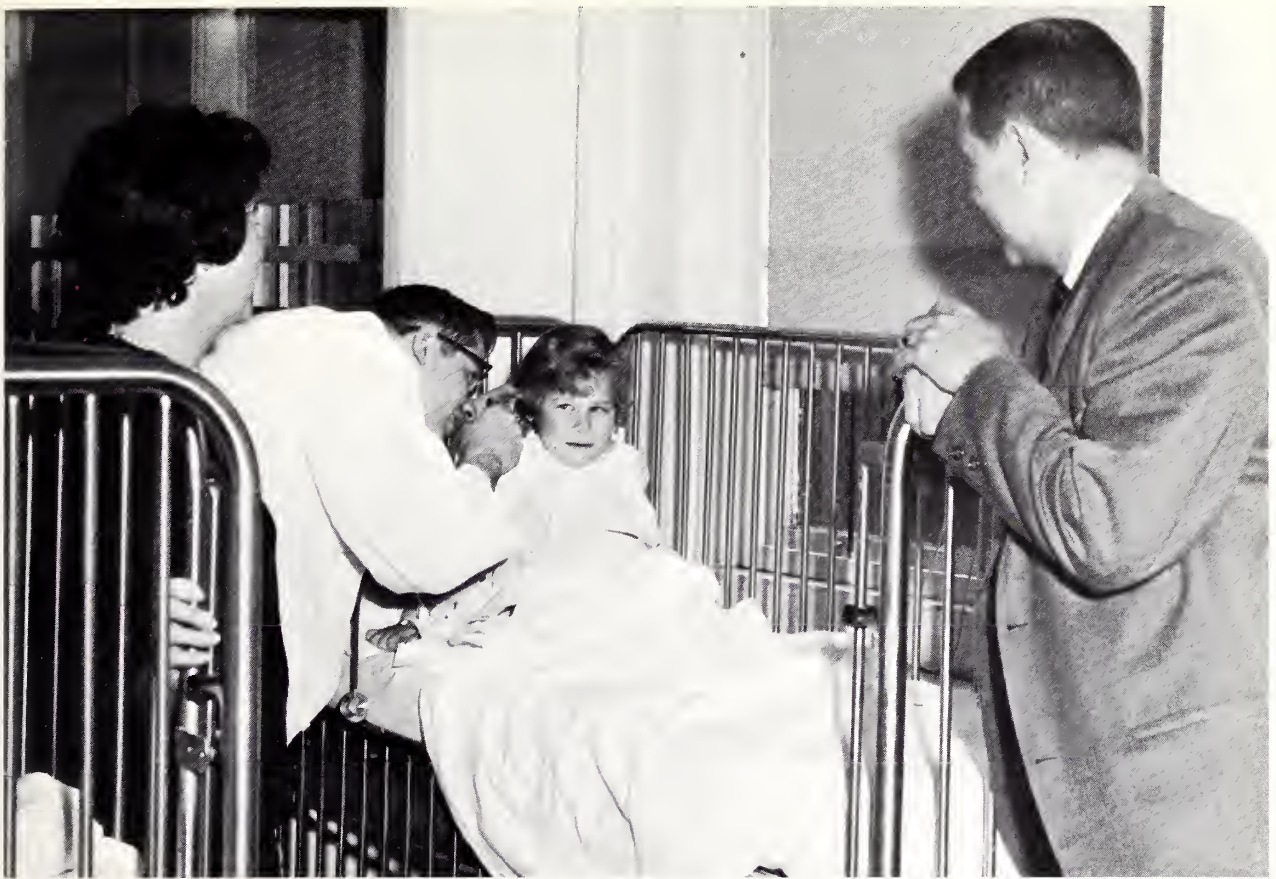

Grand Rounds: An hour of intense concentration helps to solve a perplexing problem.

Love . . . Care . . . Understanding . . .

"Are you certain all of this is necessary, Mommy?"

A new patient is admitted . . .

"Mmmm- good!"

Maternal and Child Care Instructors: S. Graber, D. Mennecke, M. Miller, S. Heath, M. Poduska.

M. Wendell, Instructor, helps to further our understanding of the ill child.

O B S T E T R I C S

The long-awaited moment is almost here!

Ready to greet the new arrival.

"It's all over!"

An important meeting — between father and son.

"I'm quality — not quantity!"

That first exam is so important!

Through practice we learn the correct method.

"It all comes out in the wash!"

Mrs. Neufeld, Instructor, admires the new baby.

Jan Francis and Judy Pfautz
 "Can't Get A Man With A Gun"

Everyone loves folk songs by Dorel Schultz and Phil Smith.

"Sweet Kentucky Babe"
 Sue Cupery, Linda Wallin and Marilyn Fink.

While traveling through Nebraska we heard Judy Pfautz sing "Preacher Boy."

An enjoyable addition to this years show was "?. Top to bottom, Drs. Schafer, Watkins, Schmidtke, Rossmann.

"Who doesn't like my hair-do?"

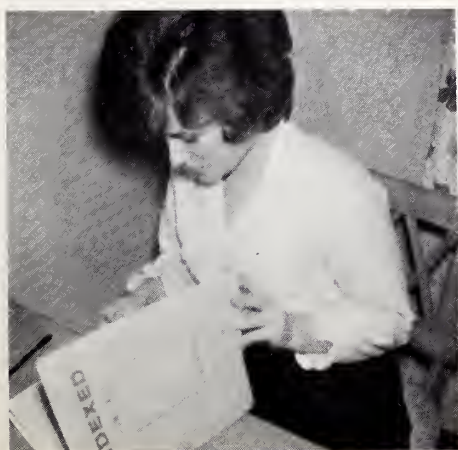

"This is a sweet pose!"

Surprise!

We do some studying!

Home on the weekends.
